Palm Beach County joins the nation each year in celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month between September 15 and October 15. In 2012, our libraries will offer exciting programs that feature the theme of Voces Hispanas (Hispanic Voices). Through music, dance, literature, and art, our Hispanic community will share beautiful expressions of rich cultural traditions, coming from a variety of countries and cultures.

This annual commemoration began with Hispanic Heritage Week, started in 1968 by President Lyndon Johnson. Twenty years later, President Ronald Reagan expanded the observation from September 15 to October 15, a month-long period which includes several Latin American countries’ anniversaries of independence. In 1988, Congress approved Law #100-402 to call on the people of the United States, especially the educational community, to observe National Hispanic Heritage Month with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

In this year’s programs, we highlight the diversity of Hispanic Voices – from Venezuelan folkloric music, Chilean artisan crafts, and songs interpreted within the Spanish tradition of the Tuna – to explorations of more modern storytelling by world-renowned Hispanic authors. We invite you to join us as we appreciate the creativity and authenticity of our many Hispanic cultures.
