“Between the Covers” of a book, we can read a heartfelt story, adventure to far-away lands real and imagined, study history, or learn more about ourselves and the world in which we live. We invite you to sign up for a book discussion, check out and open that book, read it, savor it, and then share with us what you discover between those covers during our annual Adult Book Discussion Series.

This series has engaged readers for over a decade, providing an opportunity for book enthusiasts to experience new and exciting fiction or rediscover familiar classics. At locations throughout the county, experienced and dedicated facilitators will lead these monthly discussions. Since each leader and group has a unique style and membership, you might try more than one discussion group to maximize your enjoyment of the series.

For more information on the dates and times of each discussion, how to preregister, and how to check out a copy of the book you will be reading each month, please call or visit the participating library of your choice. See individual branch listings within this publication.

FAMILIES READING TOGETHER

November 2012 marks the Palm Beach County Library System’s 9th Annual Families Reading Together Campaign. This event serves to remind the community of the importance of sharing books with children and encouraging them to read on their own.

During this year’s Families Reading Together celebration, all preschoolers and children attending kindergarten through first grade will be encouraged to read Artful Reading by Bob Raczka. Elementary school and public libraries will conduct special programs for the event. Additional outreach programming for day care centers will be provided by the Palm Beach County Library System.

Join us for a month of entertaining activities to celebrate, including a fun-filled Kick-Off event on Saturday, November 3, 10:00 am - 4:00 pm at the Norton Museum of Art. Families showing their library card will receive free admission. Children will also receive a free book of their choice at the Great Book Giveaway, meet the author of Artful Reading, go on an Artful Reading Treasure Hunt, and make their own book and other crafts. Other activities in November include performances by Celtic harpist and storyteller, Patrick Ball, at all library branches, “Ballet by the Book,” performed by The Florida Classical Ballet Theatre and a bookmark design contest.

This campaign is sponsored by the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System.
