Ancient Greeks/Modern Lives: Poetry-Drama-Dialogue is a program that has been made possible by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: great ideas brought to life. www.ancientgreeksmodernlives.org

Any views, findings, conclusions or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

ANCIENT GREEKS / MODERN LIVES: POETRY-DRAMA-DIALOGUE

Dr. Carol Gould, Professor of Philosophy at Florida Atlantic University, will explore how classical Greek literature resonates in our lives today with a lecture, a film discussion, and two reading discussions. Each program will highlight themes that were as important to the ancient Greeks as they are to our modern society.

This series is sponsored by the Aquila Theatre of New York, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System.

FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH!

By Marjorie Lear, Multicultural Librarian

Join the Library this month as we celebrate Black History Month! Several libraries are offering special programs and displays to highlight African American culture and history, with a focus in 2013 on our Florida communities.

This month, library staff members Ronald Glass and Chandra Thornton will lead discussions of the book, “Muck City: Winning and Losing in Football’s Forgotten Town,” by Bryan Mealer, at three library branches: Royal Palm Beach, Hagen Ranch Road, and West Boynton. Read the book and join the conversation to learn about the Lake Okeechobee area of Palm Beach County and the struggles of its citizens. Also during the month of February, various libraries will show special films in celebration of Black History.

Families can learn about that colorful and expressive American music known as jazz through listening games, humorous demonstrations, and storytelling in a highly interactive and fun presentation offered at various branches by Shenole Latimer, jazz saxophonist. In another special offering at many libraries, multicultural Storyteller and Folklorist Donna Washington’s amazing vocal pyrotechnics and dynamic personality will enthrall and delight audiences, making her stories come alive for every-one age four to one hundred and four!

Please help us honor our own African American community and celebrate our nation’s rich and powerful Black History, which has its roots in a week-long observation initiated by Dr. Carter G. Woodson in 1926, was expanded into Black History Month by President Ford in 1976, and became Public Law 99-244 in 1986.
