Summer Days Are Slipping Away

Summer in South Florida always includes afternoon showers. Since you can’t go to the beach what are you going to do? Here is a list of things you can do at the library while it is storming outside:

- Bring home up to 50 items including 10 DVDs.
- Be a part of the Summer Reading Program and win prizes, and enter to win a Kindle Fire.
- Come to a program and learn a new craft.
- Book time in the CreationStation and create a video, music or podcast.
- Enroll in a computer class.
- Catch a movie or a book discussion.
- Brush up on the basic steps of Salsa.
- Get a LAMP pass and visit a museum.
- Be a guest at a Java Jam session or bring your acoustic instrument and band together.
- Flip through Happenings for a complete list of programs.

If you don’t want to venture out into the downpour, you can enjoy using the library online:

- Participate in the online Summer Reading Program. www.pbclibrary.org/Soar-with-the-Heroes-Online
- Download a book from Overdrive and read or listen to it on your smart phone, tablet or computer. www.pbclibrary.org/using-the-library/find/ebooks
