Get Money Smart

The Palm Beach County Library System will be participating in the national public awareness campaign, Money Smart Month in April, by offering classes and activities throughout the county.

Money Smart Month activities are for everyone: from job seekers to small business owners to thrifty consumers. Events cover a variety of topics to help residents improve their credit score, fight against senior scams, prevent identity theft, write a grant, read a financial statement, and much more. For a complete listing of activities, visit www.pbclibrary.org.

Money Smart Month promotes financial education across all age groups. Launched in 2002 by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, the program is now active in more than 45 states through national partnerships with the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Cooperative Extension and the American Library Association.

To learn more about personal finance, careers, consumer safety, grant-seeking, thrifty lifestyle tips and more, join us at one of our Money Smart events this month!

Book + Art Discussion:
“Another Brooklyn,” by Jacqueline Woodson and “Naomi Looking Forward #2,” by Mickalene Thomas

Jacqueline Woodson’s 2016 novel tells the story of growing up as a black woman in the 1970s. Discuss Woodson’s book and its relationship to Thomas’ painting, both of which offer complex visions about the black female experience in America.
