No materials will be due on that day.
Summer is one of the busiest times of the year in our Libraries. This year is no exception. No matter your age, infants to seniors, there is something for you to attend, learn and enjoy.

This summer’s theme, “Libraries Rock,” explores music and we provide a plethora of ways for you to interact, learn and read about music. The Summer Reading Program offers opportunities for all ages to discover a few hidden gems about the library. Little Learner’s, ages 0-5, children, ages 6 & up, teens and adults can earn points and then return their logs and trackers for prizes (while supplies last) and enter a drawing to win a grand prize.

We are also partnering with the School District to provide lunches and snacks at all 17 of our library locations. Free lunch is available for children ages birth to 18. Making sure that children in our community have access to food, books and activities is just one way the Library serves as a cornerstone in our community.

The Library also offers a respite from the summer rains and heat. You can use a computer, learn a new skill, find out how to build a successful business, or sit back and read a good book.

Don’t forget you can access many library services 24/7 through our website www.pbclibrary.org. You can download a variety of materials to enjoy from music and movies to audiobooks and magazines. You can also find new titles and materials to check out on your next visit, as well as place holds on materials and pay fines.

As you peruse the pages of this magazine, I hope you can see the many ways in which the library connects communities, inspires thought and enriches lives.

Music brings people together; throughout history and around the world, music has been a special part of people’s lives, and it continues to play a fundamental role in celebrations, self-expression, communication, connection, and daily life. Whether you’re a fan of classical, jazz, oldies, country, or peace and quiet, this summer we have something for you! Through books, games, musical experiences, and STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art and math) activities, you can interact with music and sound in a wide variety of ways.

Learn about famous musicians, try your hand at making an original instrument, find out about the science behind the music you love, and rock your way all the way around the world with hands-on activities for children and families.

Lace up your dancing shoes, plug in your microphone, and get ready for a swingin’ summer as you celebrate the fact that libraries rock!

Nordic Noir
Quietly heroic. An octogenarian hero finds himself up against vicious Albanian war criminals in a foreign land.

“Norwegian by Night,” by Derek B. Miller
Sheldon Horowitz is an 82-year-old ex-Marine who carries a lot of grief about his son’s death as a soldier in Vietnam. Sheldon leaves New York for Norway to live with his pregnant granddaughter and her Norwegian husband. The upstairs neighbors desperately tried to escape their violent husband/father, and all Sheldon can think about are the people in Germany who didn’t try to help their neighbors. Sheldon takes his chance to gain redemption for not saving his own son.

Fantasy Fiction

“Dreadful Young Ladies and Other Stories,” by Kelly Barnhill
Newbery medalist Barnhill (“The Girl Who Drank the Moon,” 2016) dazzles in her short story collection for adults. Featuring a few previously published short stories, along with the World Fantasy award-winning novella, “The Unlicensed Magician.” The young ladies in question are both dreadful and enigmatic—not quite what they seem. This is a well-crafted short story collection featuring elements of magic realism while touching on the themes of love, grief, hope, jealousy and more.

Legal Fiction
Sarcastic humor and a golden retriever, you are sure to “roll over.”

“Open and Shut,” by David Rosenfelt
In the first book of the “Andy Carpenter” series, defense attorney Andy Carpenter prefers the company of his best friend Tara, to the people he encounters in the courtroom. Tara, a golden retriever, is clearly smarter than half the lawyers who clog the courts of Passaic County. However, just as it seems Andy has everything figured out, his dad, drops dead in front of him at a game in Yankee Stadium. He discovers his dad left him with two unexpected legacies: a fortune of $22 million that Andy never knew existed . . . and a murder case with enough racial tinder to burn down City Hall.

Find Your Perfect Read by Theme or Plot Using NoveList
Do you love books like “Gone Girl,” by Gillian Flynn or “The Girl on the Train,” by Paula Hawkins, where you may not be able to trust the version of events narrated in these complex and sometimes disturbing stories? Now you can easily find other titles that have similar themes using NoveList.

With NoveList (located at www.pbclibrary.org/online-resource) you have the ability to find books by themes. Here are a couple of examples:

• Welcoming a new sibling to the family can be tough, but there are books to help kids adjust. NoveList has a theme for that! Go to the NoveList site and type “TH Becoming big brothers and sisters” in the search box and you will see titles for children 8-years old and younger.

• Love a good romance where the couple start out as friends and find their feelings deepening into love? Search for “TH friends to lovers” and for teens “TH Falling for a friend.”

If you’re uncertain about what to call your theme, NoveList provides tons of suggestions sorted by genre and age group.

Have fun exploring this new feature in NoveList and we hope you find lots of good reads!
