From the Director

In other parts of the country, October signals the transition from summer to winter and the days get shorter and the temperatures start getting cooler. But we live in Florida, so we must romanticize the changing of the seasons with stories and crafts that feature leaves turning colors, pumpkin crafts, and Halloween celebrations.

October is also Family History Month and we will be hosting activities that will help you research your family history. You can also utilize some of our online research tools like Ancestry® Library Edition and HeritageQuest® to find out more about your family history.

With the 2018 mid-term elections on the horizon, Assistant County Administrator Todd Bonlarron will once again be visiting many of our locations to provide information about the local and state issues that will be on the ballot. During the month, we will also be offering workshops on breast cancer awareness and prevention.

There are also a number of activities for children designed to stimulate interest in reading and learning. There are coding classes for kids, homework help and opportunities to read to a teen mentor or a friendly animal. There are also story and playtime classes for our youngest members.

24/7 access to many Library services
In 2002, the U.S. Congress designated October as “Family History Month” to acknowledge people’s desire to research their family heritage and to recognize that “within our Nation’s libraries and archives lie the treasured records that detail the history of our Nation, our states, our communities, and our citizens.” Genealogy continues to be one of the most popular hobbies, and libraries all over the world continue to provide the skills and resources people need to explore their family history.

The Palm Beach County Library System has many wonderful books, online resources and classes to choose from, besides the helpful staff. I have used the library’s Ancestry, Family Search and Heritage Quest databases; Intra-library loan book service for family and hard-to-find books; and census, newspapers and archival databases. I joined the Genealogical Society of Palm Beach County, located in the Main Library and volunteer at The GSPBC genealogical open house each October.

During my research, I discovered that I’m the 14th great-grand daughter of William Brewster, the Mayflower Pilgrim, and many times the great-grand daughter of Mary Perkins Bradbury, accused of being a witch during the Salem Witch Trials, and have great-great-grand relatives who fought in the Civil War. What a history! I’m sure I won’t have been able to find all these treasures if it weren’t for my local library.

GOTHIC FANTASY

Jonathan Strange & Mr. Norrell, by Susanna Clarke

Part gothic fantasy, part war epic and part romance.

This Hugo Award-winning novel traces the journeys of two rival magicians vying to bring magic back to England. Set during the time of the Napoleonic Wars, the book is a richly-layered tale that evokes Austen and Dickens and explores the themes of friendship and isolation, reason and madness, and love and loss.

SUSPENSE

Our House, by Louise Candlish

There’s nothing unusual about seeing a new family moving in on your street. Except it’s your house. And you didn’t sell it.

An estranged couple have a modern co-parenting arrangement. Each parent spends a few nights a week at the prized family home to maintain stability for their children. This is a story of a failing marriage and the lies told that lead to a devastating and shocking ending.

HORROR

Hemlock Grove, by Brian McGreevy

A strange story about family, murder, gypsies, werewolves and a whole mess of a town.

The body of a young girl is found mangled and murdered in the woods of Hemlock Grove, Pennsylvania, in the shadow of the abandoned Godfrey Steel mill. A manhunt ensues — though the authorities aren’t sure if it’s a man they should be looking for.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System.
The Friends of the Library are the proud sponsors of Hispanic Heritage Month. Each month the Friends sponsor more than 200 activities and classes at branch locations throughout the County. Their support allows the Library to purchase craft supplies, bring in talented musical performers and purchase equipment used in training. Without their support the Library would not be able to offer many of the musical performances, presentations, craft activities and educational workshops. The Friends funds support items that are not covered by the Library's budget.
