TOURNAMENT FOR THE IRON THRONE

The Palm Beach County Library System will host a three-part series for lovers of the "Game of Thrones" book and TV series. The tournament will take place over the course of three Saturdays: Jan 25, Feb 08 and 22, at the Okeechobee Boulevard Branch. All events are sponsored by the Friends of the Palm Beach County Library System.

Fans who felt that the story should have ended differently or who would like to revisit the richly imagined world of Westeros will have the opportunity to fully immerse themselves in the story during these three competitive events. Participants will take part in support of the Lannisters, Targaryens, Starks, Baratheons, Greyjoys or the Wildlings. Five bannermen may contend for the glory of each house through cosplay, trivia, crafting, scheming and more. The winners of the series will determine who claims the Iron Throne.

Space is limited and preregistration is required. For more information, please visit www.pbclibrary.org/GOT.

My esteemed colleague,

It is my sincerest hope that this correspondence finds you in good health. My little birds have reported that you, too, are dissatisfied with the current occupant of the Iron Throne. I am saddened that our gentle guidance was for naught during the recent upheaval. As our preferred candidate did not acquire the throne, dear Bran is not quite up to the task. His power is great, but his mind is too focused on the spiritual for such an earthly position as King.

As matters remain tenuous in the capital, I propose that now may be an expedient moment to again attempt to redirect fate. May I suggest a Tournament of sorts? Gather your bannermen and meet at the Citadel on the 25th of January for further instruction.

For the realm,

Varys

Favorite Reading Spots in Palm Beach County

From your cozy room, to the beach and the park, an avid reader is always in search of a place to escape and get lost in a good book. Living in Palm Beach County, we truly are lucky to be surrounded by many beautiful places: beaches, parks, gardens and more. Although some of us may be absorbed by a book that we can read almost anywhere, certain places are conducive to a better reading experience.

Of course, we can’t forget what can be considered the most typical location for reading: the library. We are highlighting just three of our 17 branches – otherwise, we’d be writing an entire book! All of our branches are unique and great places to read a book or find a new favorite.

Share the love for your favorite reading spot by submitting a photo to us. Grab your favorite book, go to your favorite reading spot and snap some pictures! Be sure to tag us in your photos and use the hashtag #PBCLSReadingSpots for a chance to be featured on our social media pages.

So, check out some of these inviting spots, keep calm and read on!

Okeeheelee Park

Opened in 1981 and considered one of the largest parks in South Florida, Okeeheelee Park spans more than 1,700 acres. With many benches and picnic areas, those who are looking for a spot to read can enjoy picturesque views.

This park also has tennis courts, bicycle paths, a boat launching area, a dog park, picnic pavilions, playgrounds, walking paths and more. Additionally, this park also has the Okeeheelee Nature Center, where visitors can see animal exhibits and pop into the gift shop.

Main Library

The Main Library, located in West Palm Beach, opened to the public in 1972. It became both the central library for the County and served at the administrative headquarters.

Various special collections are housed at the Main Library, including the New Americans Corner, Floridiana, an Audubon Collection, the Genealogical Society of Palm Beach County’s collection and more.

The library has undergone two expansions over the last 30 years, increasing the building size to more than 25,000 square feet. Earlier this year, the Main Library added a teen room with computers.

Wellington Branch

The Wellington Branch, located in the Village of Wellington, opened in April 1997. In 2007, the branch expanded to 30,000 square feet. This branch is unique in that it offers a lounge area for members. Additional features include a teen section and study, meeting and conference rooms. The Wellington Branch also has an Art in Public Places sculpture, “Storyteller,” by Cobert C. Collins.
The Greenacres Branch opened in June 1975 as the Mid-County Branch, in a 1,600-square-foot building. In February 1983, the City of Greenacres joined the Library District and the branch name was changed to Greenacres Branch. The branch also moved into a 5,494-square-foot building. In June 1992, a new location was opened at 17,000 square feet.

Pan’s Garden
A magically peaceful oasis tucked away one block north of Worth Avenue, Pan’s Garden offers a quiet spot for those looking to hide away and enjoy a book or nature itself.

The native plant garden was established in 1994 by the Preservation Foundation of Palm Beach to provide education on South Florida’s botanical heritage. Within the garden, visitors can see a bronze statue of the mythological Greek god Pan, from which the garden derives its name. As the guardian of nature and wild spaces, Pan watches over the upland and wetland areas of the garden which showcase the plants and wildlife found in local habitats.

Phipps Ocean Park
Located in Palm Beach, Phipps Ocean Park has cabanas, plenty of picnic tables, barbeque grills, a tennis center and a boardwalk. The Little Red Schoolhouse is also nearby, which is considered one of the oldest structures in South Florida.

For book and nature lovers, what can be better than laying under the warm sun at a beautiful beach with a great book?
Reasons to Volunteer

Happy new year from the Library’s volunteer services and what better time than to consider volunteering at your local library. Here are eight reasons why you should consider volunteering:

1. Volunteering sets a good example for others like family and friends.

2. Did you know that volunteering keeps you healthy? Studies show those who volunteer live longer and are healthier!

4. Learning new tasks keeps your brain healthy.

5. Learning new job responsibilities is good on your résumé when seeking employment.

6. Volunteering is a great way to meet new people who have similar interests.

7. Retired? Use all those skills you have in a productive way.

8. I have never met a volunteer who was bored!

We love our volunteers.
Dustin and his twin cousins survived the murders of their parents by his adopted brother Rusty. Now a psychiatrist, Dustin has a muddy relationship with a patient intent on investigating a string of murders of young men. Dustin’s wife has died of cancer, and his own sons are drifting away from him. When Rusty is freed from prison and declared innocent, questions are raised about what Dustin witnessed the night of the murders.

"The Night Circus," by Erin Morgenstern
"This is a fantasy with beautiful description, wonderful story development and fantastic character development."

The circus arrives without warning. No announcements precede it. It is simply there when yesterday it was not. It is called Le Cirque des Rêves, and it is only open at night. Behind the scenes, a fierce competition is underway - a duel between two young magicians, Celia and Marco. The circus is but the stage for a remarkable battle of imagination and will. Despite themselves, Celia and Marco tumble headfirst into love - a magical love that makes the lights flicker and the room grow warm whenever they touch.

"Giovanni's Room," by James Baldwin
"It isn't about sexual liberation but rather understanding oppression, prejudice. A coming of age tale."

Set in the 1950s Paris of American expatriates, liaisons and violence, a young man finds himself caught between desire and conventional morality. With a sharp, probing imagination, James Baldwin’s now-classic narrative delves into the mystery of loving and creates a moving, highly controversial story of death and passion that reveals the unspoken complexities of the human heart.
