#pbclibrary
Connecting communities, inspiring thought and enriching lives is the mission of our Library System. This booklet provides you with information on all the ways the Library can service you virtually. These resources are available to you online at www.pbclibrary.org. You can access these services 24/7 with an internet connection using your desktop computer, laptop, tablet or other mobile device.

You are able to check out e-books and e-audiobooks with the latest bestseller and classic works, self-help books and study guides from cloudLibrary and hoopla. We have just about anything you might be interested in reading whether for entertainment, work or personal growth. If you love to flip through magazines but are tired of paying for a subscription and then recycling them, we have more than 80 titles for you to flip through. With Flipster, you can read these full-page, full-color magazines on your device or download them to read later. If music is more your thing, check out freegal or hoopla and begin streaming your favorite music or download songs and albums.

In addition, the Library offers many online resource tools that have information you cannot get from a basic Google search. The information available can assist you with your career, business, education, health and wellness, legal affairs and finding out about your ancestors.

I hope you find these resources useful. Please share your experience using these resources with us on social media @pbclibrary.
