ONE WORLD, MANY STORIES SUMMER READING PROGRAM

JUNE 6 TO JULY 29, 2011

"A STORY, A STORY; LET IT COME, LET IT GO."

Patrons of all ages are invited to join our "One World, Many Stories" Summer Reading Program, which runs from June 6 to July 29 at all Palm Beach County Library System locations, including the Bookmobile. Our programs and special events will encourage you to read about people from all over the world. Maybe you will want to tell your story, too!

How to participate:

- Children: Sign up at the Youth Services Desk and receive a reading log, a pencil, and a copy of Twiga's World Tour newspaper, featuring activities, word games and more. Complete 10 hours of reading to receive an inflatable world globe and a voucher for two tickets to the Palm Beach Cardinals versus Clearwater Threshers baseball game at Roger Dean Stadium on Friday, July 29.*
- Teens 12 to 16 years old: Sign up at the Youth Services Desk for our young adult "Reading Frenzy" and receive a reading log and a pencil. Complete 16 hours of reading to receive a magnetic bookmark and a voucher for two tickets to the Palm Beach Cardinals versus Clearwater Threshers baseball game at Roger Dean Stadium on Friday, July 29.*
- Adults 17 years and older: Sign up for a summer reading program packet including a reading log, a bookmark, and a globe stress ball. Then read or listen to five or more books or audiobooks. Afterwards, bring your completed reading log to your local branch and receive: a colorful story journal, pen set, and a voucher for two tickets to the Palm Beach Cardinals versus Clearwater Threshers baseball game at Roger Dean Stadium on Friday, July 29. Everyone signed up for adult summer reading program is eligible to enter in our weekly book giveaway contest.*
- Everyone: Attend special parties and programs throughout the summer!

*All materials, giveaways, and prizes while supplies last.
