Talk Like a Pirate Day: Embrace the Swashbuckling Spirit!

Ahoy, mateys! September 19th is "Talk Like a Pirate Day!" Unleash your inner pirate with high seas adventures, buried treasures and hearty "arrrs!" Conceived in 1995 by mates John Baur and Mark Summers, this boisterous celebration brings pirate fun and jolly rogering to the world.

Why Pirates?

Pirates have long captivated imaginations with daring escapades and unique language like "shiver me timbers" and "yo-ho-ho!"

The Library offers pirate resources such as:

- * DVDs, Blu-ray Discs and streaming movies such as "Pirates of the Caribbean."
- * Pirate books such as "Treasure Island," by Robert Louis Stevenson: A classic tale of buried treasure and daring pirates.
- * Hoist the Jolly Roger and dance a jig to sea shanties on Freegal or hoopla music.

Remember, whether ye be a landlubber or a seasoned sailor, Talk Like a Pirate Day be fer all to enjoy. So, batten down the hatches and set sail on a day filled with pirate merriment and adventures that'll have ye sayin', "Yo-ho-ho, me hearties!"

¡Viva la herencia hispana!

Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

Hispanic Heritage Month has a rich history, beginning as a week-long celebration in 1968. In 1988, President Ronald Reagan extended the festivities, designating September 15 to October 15 as National Hispanic Heritage Month. This period holds significance as it encompasses the independence days of several Latin American countries, including Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Mexico, Chile and Belize.

Embracing the diversity and cultural richness of Hispanic heritage, Palm Beach County boasts a considerable Hispanic and Latino population, accounting for a quarter of its residents, irrespective of race. Throughout this month, various Library locations host performances and activities to honor Hispanic arts, culture and music. This provides us with an opportunity to explore and appreciate the traditions, music and cultural heritage of our neighbors. Look for the 🌻 icon for related activities.

In addition to the community activities, here are some delightful ways to celebrate:

- Discover the works of today's most popular Hispanic authors, such as Isabel Allende, Julia de Burgos, Laura Esquivel and Jorge Luis Borges.
- Indulge in the vibrant flavors of Hispanic cuisine. Treat yourself to Brazilian Coxinhas, Mexican tacos al pastor or a delicious Cuban ropa vieja. You can explore traditional recipes in books like "Latin American Street Food," by Sandra A. Gutierrez.
- ¡Aprende español! Learn the Spanish language with ease using online resources like Transparent Language Online.
- Immerse yourself in the wonders of Latin American geography and culture through captivating documentaries and travel books. Discover the magic of the Galapagos Islands in Ecuador or embark on a virtual exploration of other iconic destinations.
- Groove to the beats of contemporary Latin music icons like Bad Bunny, Bomba Estéreo, J Balvin and Karol G. You can enjoy their latest hits on Freegal or hoopla for free with your Library card.
- Learn more about influential Hispanic figures from various generations, ranging from entertainers like Lin-Manuel Miranda and Sofia Vergara to leaders like Marco Rubio and Sonia Sotomayor.
- Delve into captivating telenovelas, explore foreign films from Latin America or enjoy timeless classics like "El Espíritu de la Colmena" (The Spirit of the Beehive).

Let this Hispanic Heritage Month be a time of celebration, learning and appreciation for the richness and contributions of Hispanic cultures to our global community. ¡Viva la herencia hispana!
